

David is a telecom executive with 27 years of experience in numerous leadership positions. Currently, David holds the position of Vice President of Public Policy in the Federal Regulations Legislative office of Verizon. He regularly represents Verizon online, in public hearings, at conferences and with the media, addressing critical world issues. David is imminently qualified to fulfill the responsibilities of Vice Commodore of the Herring Bay Yacht Club. David's goals for this position include strengthening relationships with all stakeholders, developing and implementing a communications and public relations strategy that would support new membership and deeper engagement of the current membership. David understands the necessity for working collaboratively with a diverse group of people and the requirements to support the Board and all club activities in the absence of the Commodore.

David has been an active member of the Herring Bay Yacht Club since 2011. He previously worked closely with other Board members, helping to manage the club's online presence including the website and Facebook pages. He and his wife have actively supported all land and fleet events, contributing to the club's fundraising and acting as the host couple for fleet events in 2014 and 2015. Prior to joining HBYC, he served on the Board of Governors for the Chesapeake Yacht Club in Shadyside MD. His first mate, wife Kathy Savary Young and four kids, Max (20), Laura (20), Ally (17) and Kristen (16) have enjoyed boating with David on the "Young N Savary", a Carver 41 Cockpit Motor Yacht.
