

Marina initially started her career in the South African Foreign Service, working with the International Atomic Energy Agency while posted at the South African Embassy in Washington, D.C. After various other international postings, she married and settled in Maryland. For the past 26 years, she has been an executive assistant at Dickstein Shapiro LLP, a Washington, D.C. law firm specializing in the area of mergers, acquisitions, infrastructure development and complex financings. She has been closely involved in the administrative aspects of a complex financing for a $1 billion seawater desalination facility which received numerous international awards (Project Finance Transaction of the Year in 2012; Water Infrastructure Transaction of the Year in 2012).

Her two sons, Peter and Andrew, are both active sailors who enjoy the camaraderie of HBYC and were associated with the late Colonel Timothy J. Carroll, USAF, Ret., of the S/V Kelly B on U-dock at Herrington Harbour South.
