

Dave is the father of five children, three boys and two girls and is married to his wife of 30 years, Lynnette. His oldest children, Chris and Brie reside in Sarasota, Andrew is an Air Force pilot and Stephanie is a photographer and production designer living in Charlottesville, VA. His youngest, Adam, graduated is a student at NOVA. All his children attended college with four graduating with Bachelor degrees. Dave has two Grandchild, Addison and Reese from his daughter Brie. Dave coached youth sports for many years and continues to actively support youth and high school athletic programs.

Dave earned his Bachelor's degree in Business from Southern New Hampshire University and Masters in Aviation Science and Management from Embry Riddle Aeronautical University.

Dave retired from the Air Force as a Lieutenant Colonel after a 23-year career as an Air Traffic Control and Communication officer. He lived in Okinawa, Germany, Greenland and in many locations across the United States. After retiring from the Air Force in 1993, he moved his family to Centreville VA, outside of Washington DC where he has worked in private industry focusing on aviation and support to the Federal Aviation Administration and NASA. He has held many positions of responsibility to include Vice President before becoming an Aviation Consultant.

He and his wife Lynn enjoy sailing their Hunter 356 on the Chesapeake Bay since 2011 and before that in their 25-foot Hunter after retiring from the Air Force.

Member at Large – Marina Lauziere

Marina is a corporate legal assistant at Blank Rome, a Washington, D.C. law firm based in Philadelphia, specializing in the area of mergers, acquisitions, infrastructure development and complex financings. She volunteers her time at the American Chestnut Land Trust, a land trust covering over 3,000 acres of wetlands, forest and farmland in Calvert County, Maryland. She serves as a guide on canoe trips on Parkers Creek which is part of the Governor's Run watershed.

She first joined the HBYC as First Mate on the Kelly B at HHS U-dock in 2009. In 2013 life circumstances brought her closer into the camaraderie of the club, and in 2014 she was nominated Member-at-Large. She has served in that position for the past two years.

Marina shares her time between two homes, one in North Beach, Maryland where her two grown sons Pete and Andrew live, and Alexandria, Virginia. She is engaged to Fred Lowther, the Judge Advocate of the HBYC.

Member at Large – Chris Monoki